Greetings

We are dedicating this Sisters of Unity Convention to the memory of our late mothers and sisters who were women of faith, obedience, and wisdom. Many of them were the kind of women described in Titus 2, who taught and trained us to live a life similar to that of the Proverbs 31 woman. They were devoted to prayer and faith, and they showed us how to be obedient, loving wives and mothers, discreet, chaste, and keepers at home. They taught us how to display wisdom in a soft and graceful approach. The legacy these women left is one that we celebrate, embrace, and honor by reflecting on their memories and the lessons they taught us.

Yours in Christ,

Mother Claudette Boyd, General Mother

Mother Lilly Mae Stafford, Assistant General Mother

Titus 2:3-5 KJV

3 The aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour as becometh holiness, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things;

4 That they may teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children,

5 To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.

75 Years of Unity

Mother Gloria Dobbs, Words of Life Member

Over seventy-five years, we have embarked on a journey of unity, starting with just a few and continuously recruiting new members. Though many have passed on, some of us remain. Our mothers and sisters have held up a standard of holiness and righteousness, teaching us how to follow what's written in our favorite book, the Holy Bible. They have shown us how to live a life of sacrifice, submission, and sanctity. They have taught us to be sober, strong, clean, considerate, courageous, and most importantly, to follow the light leading to the brightest light. We ponder what will be left after another seventy-five years as we look to the future. Will we leave behind a legacy of these virtues? Will we be remembered for them? Let's remember that what God brings us to, He can bring us through. So, sisters and mothers, let us continue to strive towards these ideals and be a beacon of light for others to follow.

"For All Women"

PART 1: Learning from Titus 2 Women | Why Not... Be Discreet?

A discreet woman is someone who is confident, self-controlled, and careful in what she knows, possesses, says, and wears. It is essential to understand how and when to be discreet, whether you are a married or single woman. For instance, a discreet woman knows when to speak the truth in love and when to stay quiet and listen. In this session, we will learn about the importance of being discreet as a single or married woman. We will direct questions to a panel of aged women to help us understand why discretion is a Holy virtue.

Moderators: Sisters Calandra Miller and/or Lilly Boyd

Panelists: Mothers Cassandra Camp, Barbara Jones, Ramona Murphy, Brenda Pullin, and Virginia Reynolds

Remarks: Mother Claudette Boyd, General Mother

Location: Lucas Temple Sanctuary

Keeping our GIRLS Safe Starts NOW!

It's essential to start teaching our children about safety from an early age. Kids are naturally curious and may not fully comprehend the potential risks and dangers around them. Often, children are unaware of their surroundings, making them vulnerable to harm. This session is designed to educate our beautiful daughters about safety and how to protect themselves in dangerous situations. We'll be discussing tips on public safety, internet safety, and more.

Open Discussion led by Sister Donna Green

Location: Meet in Room 1 - Bishop B.J. Lawson

"For Younger Girls, under 8"

"I AM" Who God Says I AM

The girls in this class will be provided with an "I Am" coloring book, created by author Ms. Aaliyah Wilson, which are filled with positive affirmations such as "I am enough," "I am unique," and "I am worthy," among others. During the session, each girl will choose a page or pages with one of these positive affirmations and then select a corresponding scripture that speaks to what God has called us to be. For example, God has called us to be Holy (1 Peter 1:16), children of God (Galatians 3:26), and so on. The goal of this session is to build the girls' confidence by helping them understand who they are and whose they are!

Facilitator: Sister Asia Camp

“For All Women”

PART 2: Learning from Titus 2 Women

A Wise Woman Builds Her Home: The Recipe for a Godly Home.

"The wise woman builds her house, but the foolish pulls it down with her hands." A wise woman embodies love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. She seeks ways to make, save, and use money wisely. She strives to love her children and respect her husband. In this session, we will discuss the significance of being a woman of wisdom in all aspects of life. We will direct questions to a panel of wise and experienced women to help us understand the importance of attaining wisdom in life.

Moderators: Sisters Lilly Boyd and/or Calandra Miller

Panelists: Mothers Cassandra Camp, Barbara Jones, Ramona Murphy, Brenda Pullin, and Virginia Reynolds

Remarks: Mother Claudette Boyd, General Mother

Location: Lucas Temple Sanctuary

“For Ages 11 and up”

Girls and Mental Health

Mental health is an essential aspect of our overall health and well-being. It helps us understand our abilities, cope with daily activities, contribute to our community, and build meaningful relationships. Every individual has a different level of mental health, which ranges from feeling positive to feeling low. We believe that pre-teens and teens should participate in this conversation to learn and grow together. In this session, we will share helpful information on how to recognize and manage your mental health as you go through middle and high school.

Open Discussion led by Sister Nichelle Lemons

Location: Meet in Room 1 – Bishop B.J. Lawson

“For Ages 8 and up”

Journey Through Slime: A Beautiful Creation

Slime can be messy and sticky like sin, but with the right ingredients and molding, it can turn into a beautiful creation. This process teaches us an important lesson. Just like with slime, we must apply faith and be spiritually activated through Christ Jesus for our own lives to become beautiful and free of sin.

IMPORTANT: Please have your daughter(s) wear “play clothing” to this session.

Facilitators: Sisters Latonia Taylor and Crystle Kizer

Location: Meet in Room 3 – Mother Girlie Dean

“For Ages 3-7”

God Knows Us | Like Every Grain of Sand

Kinetic Sand provides a sensory experience that can be enjoyed by all. Have you ever seen photographs of sand under a microscope? Some grains are glossy stones, others look like icicles, some are shaped like precious gems, and so on. Every grain of sand is unique, just like every person in the world. So the next time you're building sand-castles, digging trenches, and creating sand art, take a moment to reflect on the power of God. Consider his creations, the wonders he has done, and the endless possibilities that exist. Just like God knows the uniqueness of each grain of sand, he knows the same about us!

PEACE ON EARTH | Goodwill towards Women, In Memory of Mother Bessie Boyd

Mother Bessie Boyd was a remarkable woman who exuded confidence, elegance, and sophistication. She had a passion for thrift shopping and we have heard many wonderful stories about her adventures at various Goodwill locations. Her children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and many church members and family benefited from her purchases from Goodwill. Mother Bessie Boyd understood the financial and environmental benefits of thrift shopping. Therefore, in honor of her, let's go thrift shopping!

We will have representatives from all church locations to model clothing, shoes, hats, purses, and other accessories from Goodwill or consignment shops. Who will represent thrift shopping at its finest while embodying Mother Boyd's confidence, elegance, and sophistication?

Facilitators: Sisters Tina Hall and Ashley Murphy
